

2ND NEWSLETTER

DEAR PARENTS & STUDENTS

Temperatures may be dropping outside, but the studio is warm & bustling with excitement!

We've moved past the new year jitters, students are settled into their class schedule, teachers are getting to know their dancers. Production information has been released - teachers have their music, students have seen the costume inspiration. Classes start to become more technical & focused and choreography will start in this second session. It's an exciting time for everyone!

Please review the important dates below especially with upcoming holidays. Remember, we follow CCPS for inclement weather only!

We have exciting events coming up including participation in a Christmas event, another Bring a Friend Week, Parent Watch Week & more!

As always, thank you for trusting us to pass our love for dance to your children.

Gratefully,
Becky Arden
Executive Director

UPCOMING EVENTS

PARENT WATCH WEEK

Parent Watch Week is February 8th to 18th.

Family members are invited to attend their dancer's classes - it's a great chance to see their regular class, all that they have been working on, and maybe even get a sneak peek or teaser of their production dance!

It is also a great opportunity for younger students to attend higher level classes & see what they are working towards.

It is spread over 2 weeks to accommodate spacing, seats, etc. so a schedule of the 2 weeks with participating classes each day will be released closer to the week.

DID YOU KNOW?

We have a private Facebook group for parents & students. It's an opportunity to post reminders & information as well as a place parents can ask questions to other parents & the studio.
